K2, CRAWLEY, ENGLAND. 20, 21, 22 SEPTEMBER 2013

---

Dear WIKF Family,

When we first decided to host the World Championships it was before the very sad loss of our beloved Sensei, so now we are bringing his memory to our 7th World Championship here in England and his spirit to join all of us, to make this the most Successful WIKF World Championships in his honor, in his second homeland.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank Mr. Andy Michaelides and Mr. Carl Huckstep and the England WIKF organizing committee for hosting our 7th World Championships. I've known from past experience what hard work organizing these Championships involves.

A big thank you to all Referees, time keepers and table officials etc. for their help and time during this event, who I know are sometimes taking for granted during these events, but without their efforts the tournament would not take place.

I wish all participants every success in this Competition, please remember there can only be a few winners, but it's not all about winning it's the taking part with the true WIKF spirit, one special Wado Kokusai Family.

Good luck to all of you!

Jon Wicks 8th Dan World Chief Instructor

Andy Michaelides 6th Dan

Tournament Director

K2, CRAWLEY, ENGLAND. 20, 21, 22 SEPTEMBER 2013

Dear WIKF Instructors, Coaches, Officials and Athletes,

Back in 2008, at the World Championships in Portugal, Sensei Suzuki and I were talking and Sensei was telling me that England needed to host the next World Championship in 2012 and I should organise the event in London. I didn't want to let my Sensei down, so in 2009 I began discussing ideas with my students and followed this up in 2010 with Sensei Jon Wicks at the 2010 European Championships in Italy. We decided at that point that it was the right time, and that England would host the next World Championships in London, the 7th WIKF World Championships. Although our Sensei will not be with us at the Championships, I promise to make my Sensei proud and organize the best World Championships that WIKF has ever seen for all those who are involved at the competition.

As we are dedicating these Championships to our Sensei, we want all of WIKF family to come to London for a holiday, participate at these Championships and join us in celebrating Wado Karate and the WIKF which Sensei has left us with. We believe that these Championships will be the biggest World Championships with the largest participation from all over the World. Because of this, we want to make not only the event unique and special for everyone participating but also a very enjoyable and exciting event for all the spectators.

Firstly, we will opening at the Kumite age category for 10 to 11 year old, as I believe the young children of WIKF have a lot to offer at the Championships and as the ability of young athletes has improved significantly over the last decade, WIKF can be the forefront of Karate Worldwide by involving the younger athletes at our Championships and ensuring that they remain the future of WIKF.

Secondly, the finals of all Kumite categories will run as showcase events. This will ensure that the experience for all the finalists is truly and unforgettable experience and one that they deserve at these Championships.

Finally and for the first time ever, we will be running a special "Suzuki's Champion Cup" for the Senior Male and Female athletes, which will be a prize money event!!! The event will be free for all participants, but to qualify, athletes must medal at their respective individual weight category. This will not replace the Open Weight category, but will run as an additional event in dedication to Sensei Suzuki.

I hope to see you all in London and we wish you all the very best at these Championships.

Andy Michaelides 6th Dan Tournament Director
